proper Simms, of Brooklyn, was notified to hold inquest yesterday over the body of Henry Leobold, committed suicide at No. 29 Myrtle avenue, by cutting his throat with a razor. The deceased was a Germany, thirty-seven years of age and un married. He was a cabinetmaker by trade and believed, disappointment in love. In the pocket of the deceased was found a note, of which the following

Through bad sectety insaperienced men are worsted, and also through bad treat-

There was no signature attached to the note, which ras written in German, in a large hand, upon the back of a bilihead of "H. True, mason, No. 29 Myrtle avenue." The paper was much soiled and had the avenue." The paper was much soiled and had the appearance of having been carried about in the pocket for some time. The inquest over the body was held pasterday alternoon, the only testimony taken being that of Mr. Guibrecht, who said that Leobold restred to his bedroom, which is off the hall at the nead of the stores on the third door, about twelve o'clock on Saturday hight. His manner had been strange at times, and he magined things which had no existence in fact. The occeased has been boarding with Mr. Gutbrecht for six years and was steady and quiet in his manner and tabits. As he did not come down stairs to breakfast at the usual hour yesterday morning the witness went up to his room door at nine o'clock, and, finding it locked, knocked loudly and called to Leoobid. As there was no reply he got down upon his knees and peoped in under the door. He was norrified upon beholding the deceased lying on his back weltering in a pool of blood. The door was then broken open and Leobold's corpse was found partly distobed, grasping a rezur in his right hand. The incision in the throat was several inches in depth. The pelice of the First precinct were insunciately notified of the occurrence. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict of suicide in accordance with the above facts. The inmates of the to oussiate that though he proposed to Maggie Hanson and was rejected by her toey did not believe that his love for her led him to committing suicide, and threat-need to jume off the dock or cut his throat, as he said he was made inn of at the workshop, that he was ireated as a seponniol. He spoke of people threatening to take him to the madhouse on Satur day evening and other absurdities. Miss Hanson, is employed in the lamily of Mr. Gutbrecht as a domestic. An uncle of the deceased committed suicide in Brooklya about a year ago. The body, which was taken to the Morgue, will be interred to-day. ppearance of having been carried about in the pocke

Philip Blumenstock, a manufacturer of tin cans, whose place of business is at No. 273 Pearl street, New York, aied on Saturday afternoon, between three and our o'clock, at his family residence, No. 404 Degraw street, Brooklyn, under circumstances which indicate that death was caused by poison. Mr. Blumen-stock, it appears, according to the inquiries made by Coroner Simms, who is investigating the case, was in his usual health on Saturday morning, when he in his usual health on Saturdey morning, when he partook of a light breakfast of coffee, eggs and crackers and then left the house for his office in this city. At one ofclock he returned to his home, complaining of great poin in the stomach. He said he had been sick on the ferry boat and told his wife that he had taken a cup of tes. Dr. Watt prescribed for the patient and whom he called again he found Mr. Blamenstock dying. The doctor reported the case, as no suspected that the deceased had shown symptoms of posson. The Coroner caused a post-mortem examination of the contents of the Stomach to be made by Dr. A. Warren Shepard, and the result was that evidence of corresive poison, from exalic acid, arsent or some other poisoneds acid, as found there. The brother of the deceased saw the latter between ten and eleven o'clock at his office, and he was not sick at that time. The inquest will be held to-day. Mr. Blumenstock, who was a Hebrew, was thirty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and namily. He was engaged in business with Leo Burnary last, when they dissolved partnership, his partner buying him out. He was despondent in consequence of the besiness dissolution for some time after, and recently resumed business in Pearl Street. He was in easy circumstances.

"NO ONE TO MISS ME." Officer McConn, of the First precince police station, Jersey City, at ten o'clock yesterday morning saw a man throw lumself across the Pennsylvania Railroad track at Benderson street in front of an appreaching freight train. He had berely time to drag the man from the track belove the train passed. At the police station the man gave his name as James spencer, aged thirty, and said that he had no home. When asked why he threw himself on the track he answered that it was because he could not get work prioed, and there being no one to miss him he wanted o die. He was locked up.

Lodwick Jackson (colored), of Roslyn, L. 1., tempted to commit suicide on Friday. Dr. Bogart was summoned, and found that Jackson had stabbed himself in the left side with a common penknie, indicting only a slight wound. This is Jackson's second attempt at suicide, he having a few months ago tried to cut his throat.

SHOT IN THE BACK.

AN ANGRY FATHER FIRES A GUN AT HIS SON'S ASSAILANT IN WILLIAMSBURG.

ghostly tragedy excited the north side of Willtamsburg list evening. James Riley, who resides in the rear of No. 286 North Seventh street, was so exanted over a fight between one Patrick Fitzpatrick and his son John that he fired a load of small shot from a second floor window and sent the whole charge through the back and side of Fitzpatrick, who now lies dying in the Eastern District Hospital, For an hour or more the crowds along Fourth street, from the station bouse at North First to North Seventh street, revived the memories of the terrible Fuchs-Simmons butchery, which occurred in the same escighborhood.

Captain Wogiom arrested James Riley, aged fortyright years, of No 286 North Seventh street, rear, and lohn Riley, his son, aged twenty-two years. The inrict Hospital, where Dr. S. J. Brady pronounced the ured man was meanwhile taken to the Esstern Disrict Hospital, where Dr. S. J. Brady pronounced the use faial and sent for Coroner Noish to take Fitzmatrick's ante-mortem statement.

The story of the affair, as told by the occused, is ablantially that during the alternoon Johnny and fitzpatrick had several quarrels, in which the forner was worsted. About our o'clock the most severe ight between them took place on the sidewalk, at No. 256 North seventh street, during which Rifey, secreting enough putlishment, rau in through he alley to the residence of his parents and securely fastened the door between him and his assailant. Fitzpatrick followed him and attempted to force an entrance through the door siter breaking the windows. The door was too strong for him, nowever, and he started for the sidewalk, mutiering as he want that he would soon find a way to get as him. When about half way across the yard old Mr. Riley discharged a ghn at him, and the full tharge of small shot entered Fitzpatrick's back, just under the shoulder blade, and passed out at the front almost close to the arm, making a hole as large as nee's hand and leaving the ontire viscera exposed.

He staggered forward a lew steps and led.

Coroner Nolan empanelled a jury, and took the wounded man's statement of the affray. The scene toward the close when the Rileys were brought in and kientified-byly him was quite dramatic, old Mr. Riley being quite overcome by the terrible ponition in which he has placed himself by his rashness, but excuses himself by saying the Rnown bad reputation of Fitzpatrick rendered the shooting absolutely necessary as a megns of self defence. Captain Woglom corroborates the charge of bad character against Fitzpatrick in his ante-mortem statement. Patrick Fitzpatrick said that in the alternoon Johnny Riley and be quarrelied about some drinks, alter which Riley went muo the house, and about half an hour alterward deponent we'nt into the yard of bis (Riley's) house and called to him, but he would not come out. "I only

The Hileys were then committed by the Coroner.

SHOOTING AT A POLICEMAN.

Officer Simons, who had just arrested a young rough, named Dorsey, was attacked, beaten and shot at last night by one l'atrick McGahy in his efforts to rescue the prisoner at the corner of River and Grand streets. Simons would have been killed but for the arrival of Officer Vinherty, who struck the revolver from the pands of his seentlant, Dorsey and a woman were acting to such a disorderly manner on the cor-Peter Marseilles, at one time a prominent merchant door, a Horculean specimen of humanity, becoming of Philadelphia, but who retired from active business and, wrenching his club from him, felled him low rears.

with it. Dorsey at once made his escape, and Simons getting possession of a cane carried by McGshy, made such a delence against the latter that McGshy pulled his revolver and fired at the officer. The shot missed its aim and fortunately at the same instant a blow from the club of Officer Flaherty, who had been attracted by the sculle, sent the weapon flying, acciably lought them both, and it was a saraggle all the way to the station house. Dorsey, who was foolish enough to follow them up, was recaptured a few minutes after the incarceration of McGahy.

STABBED BY A BOY.

A watchman named Thomas Meehan, employed at the Newsboys' Lodging House, No. 709 East Eleventh street, was severely stabled in the neck last evening with a pocket kuife in the hands of John Bolan, a bootblack, who lodged in the bouse.

The wounded man was attended by Dr. Toal and left for his nome. Dolan was locked up in the Eleventh left for his nome. Dolan was locked up in the Elevenin precinct police station. Dolan had been in the habit of swearing, and was reported several times by the watchman for doing so. The rules of the house compelled the boy to pay a fine for each offence and he folt angry toward Meehan on that account. Shortly before the stabbing Meehan reprimanded the boy for bad behavior and threatened to put him out of the heuse. The boy then drew the kinic and stabbed him. The wound is an ugly lacerated one, and the ugh severe is not considered dangerous.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Charles Somers, aged twenty-three, the son of a well known resident of the First ward, Jersey City, while handing a revolver in his residence, No. 104 Easex street, yesterday, carelossly let the weapon fall out of his hands to the floor. The concussion discharged one barrel and the ball entered the young mon's stomach. Dr. McGill was summoned and was unable to extract the ball, but he has no lears for the young man's life.

DEATH IN A CELL.

John Norton, thirty-one years of age and at one time an actor, was arrested on Saturday after-noon for intoxication and locked up in a cell in the Twenty-ninth precinct station house. The door man, when going his rounds at four o'clock yesterday

Twenty-ninth precinct station bouse. The doorman, when going his rounds at four o'clock yesterday morning, saw Norton stretched on the cell floor and breathing heavily. An ambulance was telegraphed for, but before it arrived Norton was dead. Coroner Croker will investigate the cause of his death, which it is believed resulted from alcoholism.

At the time of his arrest Norton was in the company of Thomas Goggin, a wanter, who resides at No.
142 West Twenty-sixth street. Both men were very drank and Norton charged Goggin with having beaten him. Goggin was locked up on the charge preferred by Norton, as well as for intoxication. During the night Norton became very noisy in his cell, repeating parts of plays and gesticulating wildly as he paced up and down his narrow quarters. The doorman visited him several times and tried to persuade him to keep quiet. The last time he saw him was but a few moments before his death, and he was thou standing at the cell door with his hands cinsped around the fron grating, talking foudly and apparently in good health and spirits. Upon exanining his body the only mark of vioience discovered was a discoloration of tho left eye, such as might be produced by a blow. An autopsy will be made to-day uy Deputy Coroner McWhinnie. The mother of deceased cailed at the station house and identified the body of her son. He is said to have been a fine elocutionist and made considerable money by preparing pupils for the stage.
As an actor be met with little auccess and the money earned by teaching he squandered for drink. His father was a clergyman and his mother a member of a very o'd and aristocratic Nowport (R. I.) family. The prisoner Goggin was held to await the result of the Coroner's investigation, although there is but little doubt that his death was due to an over indusgence in suminants, taken, it is claimed by his friends, to relieve him of some painful internal all-

RESCUED FROM THE RIVER.

An unknown man, about thirty-five years of age, having reddish hair, fell overboard last evening a pier 41 North River between two canal boats. He was rescued from the water by Sergeant Gastlin and Officer Bendin, of the Western Steamboat Squad, and removed to Chambers Street Hospital, where it was found that he had sustained severe injuries by being crushed between the boats.

CHINESE GAMBLERS.

Ah Low, Ab Lee, Ah Foo and Ah Mon were baving a game the police did not understand at No. 13 Mot street last night. They were locked up in the Four-teenth precinct station house, and will be taken to the Tembs this morning, where Judge Murray will take a hand in the matter.

DON'T STAND ON THE PLATFORM,

Max Adler, a young man residing on Scholes street, was taken to St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg, in the ambuiance last night, suffering from severe internal injuries received by falling over the rear deah-board of a street car while it was in motion on Mosboard of a street our while it was in motion on Moserole street. The young man was sitting on the dash-board, and, testing his balance, lell over backward.

HIS FIRST OFFENCE.

John Talbot, a stout able-bodled carman, aged fifty, pounds of Spanish saffron, worth $33, from John A. Stoothoff, of No. 32 Liberty street. He took the goods to one Hart, who bought them of him for one-third their value. Taibot was arrested, and at once admitted he had taken the saffron. He was brought to the asked the Justice to let him off, as he was intoxicated when he committed the theft. He said he had borne an excellent character for over twenty years, and this was his dirst offence. He was held in $500. Hart, who was present, was censured by the magnistrate for buying the goods when it was evident they were unlawfully obtained.

BREAKING JAIL.

A desperate and partially successful attempt to break jail was made by prisoners at New Brunswick, N. J., yesterday. Among those confined in the building were Davis, Emmerson and Allison, three pickpockets. The escape was planned by them. Davis and Emmerson were recaptured, but Allison succeeded in getting away. The latter was tried, convicted and sentenced to two and a half years in the state Prison. The others are to be placed on trial to-morrow.

AN OWNERLESS BABE.

A male intant, about two weeks old, was found last evening in a milk wagon in the yard of No. 304 East Twenty-jourth street, and consigned to the care of the matron at Police Headquarters.
